CLEAN ENVIRONMENT LEADERS SUMMIT

Charting a Sustainable Path for Asia

Joint Opening Plenary

An Opening Plenary on Shaping Our Cities, Water and Environment for a Liveable & Sustainable Future, where world leaders from government, industry, and international organisation sectors will share insight on cross-disciplinary urban policy and governance issues, address emerging challenges and examine the respective roles of key stakeholders in co-creating liveable and sustainable cities of the future.

In-Conversation

The In-Conversation Session provides a unique opportunity for delegates to hear from a distinguished world leader who is active in shaping the global landscape of cities, environment and sustainable development today against a backdrop of dynamic and complex forces of change.

Clean Environment Leaders Plenary (CELP)

CELP is the high-level plenary of Clean Environment Leaders Summit (CELS), where the world's top environmental leaders from the public and private sectors, international organisations and think tanks convene to discuss global environmental issues, share knowledge and shape thought leadership and policies for the development of impactful and environmentally sustainable solutions.

Charting a Sustainable Path: Opportunities and Potential for Asia

Rapid urbanisation and industrialisation have put developing Asian countries under immense pressure in managing limited resources and providing a clean and healthy urban environment for people. Increasing resource scarcity, pollution from industrial activities and climate change impacts have prompted societies to rethink the "business as usual" approach to growth.

As the region transforms itself into an economic powerhouse, the plenary will explore how Asia can rise above prevalent environmental challenges, as well as resource constraints, and move towards sustainable growth.

MORE EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Clean Environment Regulators Roundtable (CERR)

Facing the Challenges Together

The CERR is an exclusive by-invitation session designed for senior environmental management practitioners and policy makers, pegged at Director-General / Director level, to exchange environmental regulatory experience and discuss current and emerging challenges faced in managing environmental issues. Participants can expect to gain insight into good practices in environmental pollution and waste management, and discover practical solutions to environmental problems. To uphold the confidentiality of the discussions, no official record of proceedings will be produced.

Clean Environment Convention (CEC)

Solutions for a Clean & Sustainable Future

CEC will have parallel sessions on Waste Management and Cleaning for industry players, international organisations, academia, as well as government and municipal authorities. The CEC will open with a joint plenary on Best Practices for Clean Cities, which discusses the role of the government and its stakeholders in keeping cities clean.

The Waste Management track, themed Smart Solutions for Resource Efficient Waste Management, will cover latest issues, trends and developments focusing on critical topics including:

- Globalisation vs. Localisation: The role of Asian markets
- Driving behavioural change to improve household recycling
- Food waste: Minimising waste along the value chain
- Developing e-waste policies & practices for Asia's needs
- Packaging waste management: The way forward
- The role of design & technology in meeting future waste management challenges

The Cleaning session, themed Sustaining the Future of Cleaning, will discuss market trends, key drivers and opportunities for sustainable cleaning. Topics include:

- Win-win-win partnerships
- Technology, a force multiplier: Why, what and how
- SMART cleaning workforce in a growing affluent society
- How clean IS clean
- From design to maintenance – Creating future sustainable buildings

Technology Showcase @ WasteMET Asia & CleanMET Asia

Connect with Industry Professionals

The Technology Showcases at WasteMET Asia & CleanMET Asia, aside from presenting innovative technologies and solutions, also serve as the dedicated platform for practitioners to keep abreast of the latest developments in their respective sectors, in addition to encouraging more partnerships and business involvements.
