

2014-10-07 1300 - 1400 HOURS

Module 7

Management review (Clause 4.7)

1 1

Learning Objectives

- Intent and interpretation of the requirement
- Ways to meet requirements

2

What is the purpose of management review?
What is difference with operational review?

3 3

General (Clause 4.7.1)

At planned intervals, top management shall review organization's EnMS to sure its continuing suitability, adequacy and effectiveness.

Records of management review shall be maintained.

4

Input to management review (Cl. 4.7.2)

Input shall include,

- Follow up actions from previous reviews
- Review of energy policy
- Review of energy performance and related EnPIs
- Results of evaluation of compliance with requirements
- Extent to which energy objectives are met
- EnMS audit results
- Status of corrective actions and preventive actions
- Projected energy performance
- Recommendations for improvement

5

Output from management review

(Clause 4.7.3)

Input shall include any decisions and actions,

- Changes in energy performance of the organization
- Changes to the energy policy
- Changes to the EnPIs
- Changes to objectives, targets or others
- Changes to allocation of resources

6

Does management review necessarily have to be a face to face meeting?

7 7

Questions ??

8 8
