

Mockernut Hickory

Carya tomentosa

- ◆ Each leaf with 5 or 7 leaflets.
- ◆ Nut meat is delicious eaten raw.
- ◆ Nut meat can be made into nut oil.
- ◆ Inner bark useful for making cords.

Wax myrtle

Myrica cerifera

- ◆ Crushed leaves are highly aromatic
- ◆ When rubbed on skin, can be used as insect repellent

Turkey Oak

Quercus laevis

- ◆ Leaves have 3 lobes which resemble a turkey foot
- ◆ Acorns are edible once they have been soaked in water to remove the tannic acid

Shiny Blueberry

Vaccinium myrsinites

- ◆ Grows as a low shrub
- ◆ Oblong, sharp-tipped leaves
- ◆ Edible berries

Muscadine Grape

Vitis

- ◆ Leaves have a toothed edge
  - ◆ Heart-shaped leaves
    - ◆ Edible fruit
- ◆ Vines used for basket making

Greenbrier

Smilax

- ◆ Rocket-shaped leaves
  - ◆ Thorny vines
- ◆ Roots used to thicken soups
- ◆ Non-edible berries used for dye
- ◆ Vines used for basket making

Winged Sumac

Rhus copallina

- ◆ "Wings" on stem between leaflets
- ◆ Leaves turn bright red in autumn
- ◆ Small red berries were used to make "indian lemonade"

Saw Palmetto

Serenoa repens

- ◆ Spiny stem used as a cutting tool.
- ◆ Fronds used for thatching mats.
- ◆ Fibers used for cordage and baskets.
- ◆ Berries highly nutritious but foul-tasting.