14:30–15:00	Keynote Address
15:00–15:30	Coffee Break
15:30–17:30	Session 1: IAIS Major Projects Update In this annual session, IAIS leadership will provide updates of key initiatives from IAIS parent committees including, but not limited to, ComFrame and the Insurance Capital Standard (ICS), the holistic framework for the mitigation of systemic risk and implementation and assessment activities. Moderator: Jonathan Dixon, Secretary General

Day Two: 9 November 2018

Time	Event
08:00	Registration Opens
09:00–09:30	Keynote Address
09:30–10:45	Session 2: A Brave New World of Big Data and Artificial Intelligence – What it Means for the Insurance Sector and Insurance Supervision Digital technologies are rapidly transforming the global insurance sector. This session will examine the relationship between enhanced data capture and analytic capabilities and artificial intelligence and the implications for the insurance sector. In particular, what supervisory challenges and opportunities does this combination present and how should insurance supervisors respond? Moderator: Victoria (Vicky) Saporta, Chair, Executive Committee; Executive Director of Prudential Policy Directorate at the Bank of England
10:45–11:15	Coffee Break

Please note that this is a preliminary schedule, subject to change.

11:15–12:30	Session 3: Supporting Sustainable Economic Development – Exploring The Role of Insurance Supervisors The insurance sector supports sustainable economic development in a number of ways; for example, by expanding the availability of long-term finance for infrastructure investments, supporting more effective risk management and increasing resilience. Perspectives vary on the role of insurance supervisors in supporting sustainable economic development. In this session, panellists will debate the risks, challenges and opportunities for insurance supervisors in considering sustainable economic development objectives Moderator: Julie Mix McPeak, Vice Chair, Executive Committee; President, NAIC; Commissioner, Tennessee (USA) Department of Commerce and Insurance
12:30–13:30	Lunch
13:30–15:00	Session 4: Climate Risk and Natural Catastrophes – Closing the Protection Gap The frequency and severity of natural disasters makes the need to close the insurance protection gap even more acute. Given the heightened climate risk, this session will explore the role of insurance supervisors in closing the protection gap and examine specific steps being taken by supervisors in different regions of the world – in both developed and emerging markets – to close the gap. Moderator: : Geoff Summerhayes, Member, Executive Committee; Executive Board Member, Australian Prudential Regulation Authority
15:00–15:30	Coffee break
15:30–16:45	Session 5: A Supervisory Discussion of a Holistic Approach to Insurance Supervision – Making the Link between Prudential and Conduct of Business Supervision In the aftermath of the financial crisis, the IAIS has devoted considerable attention to prudential issues. However, with changes driven by innovation and technology and evolving risks, such as cybersecurity, impacting consumers, the IAIS recognizes the need to place greater attention on conduct of business. This session will explore the linkages between prudential and conduct of business supervision in the context of current trends within the global insurance sector, focusing on the IAIS’ role in promoting a holistic approach to insurance supervision. Moderator: Gabriel Bernardino, Member, Executive Committee; Chair, EIOPA
16:45–17:00	Wrap Up Closing comments and observations.
