

OECD/Global Forum/DGT Seminar on

EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

21-22 July 2021 14:00-17:00 (all times Jakarta local time)

AGENDA

This virtual class aims to encouraged participants to make effective application of EOI by increasing the number and quality of outgoing requests. Participants are well informed/familiarised regarding close connection between the use of EOI to aid domestic tax investigation/audit/assessment in cross border transaction. DGT, the OECD and the Global Forum have previous collaboration in similar topic of EOI in virtual class, this year DGT objectives is to broaden the number of participants from previous year.

Part of the Directorate General of Taxes program is to develop employee's competence through the provision of additional knowledge, skills and behaviors; through conducting virtual class for example. DGT as one of the members of the Study Group on Asia-Pacific Tax Administration and Research (SGATAR) will also invite all other members to participate in this virtual class, in order to increase communication and cooperation with other members but also to know their perspective about international taxation. International taxation is a large scope of topic, but the topic has been narrowed to focus on exchange of information materials.

Goal of the training

This training will focus on the connection between the domestic tax investigation, the information gathering framework and the international infrastructure for exchange of information (EOI). Participants will be introduced to key concepts of transparency and EOI assimilated into the international standards, in particular EOI on request (EOIR). Through a series of presentations and quiz exercises, participants will be familiarised with the use of EOI networks and structures to improve the quality of tax audits and to combat offshore tax evasion.

Participants are encouraged to make effective use of these EOI tools by increasing the number and quality of outgoing requests to their treaty partners. The seminar will strengthen awareness among participants that protection of domestic revenue is closely linked with the effective use of this EOI network.

Target audience

The seminar is designed for tax auditors, officials responsible for training tax auditors in EOI, and other persons engaged in EOI for tax purposes. Participants should be prepared to discuss their approach and issues in an open way.
